

“Pray”

a poem inspired by Davy Strong’s painting, The Old Dock on the Bay

by Neal Dwyer

pray
that we live
in the company
of planks –

the uneven,
the skewed and
the rickety –

that we learn
to praise the weary
and the weathered –

because
what is worn
lives among us –

milk cloud
mixing with
bay